

BIO for Angie Echols Fogleman

Angie Fogleman is a native of Durham, NC. She has owned and operated a successful dance studio for 21 years Dance Expressions in Durham/Hillsborough, NC. She is certified and trained in tap, jazz, lyrical, acrobatics, and ballet. She has studied and trained with many well know dance professionals such as, the late Frank Hatchett, Debbi Dee, Scott Benson, Sonya Livingston (former Rockette) and many, many more. Angie was a professional cheerleader/dancer for the Raleigh/Durham Skyhawks World League Football Team. Her students have won numerous awards on the regional, state and national level and are continuing dance professionally and in college dance programs. She has served on the judging panel for various Dance Competitions and National Pageant Systems for dance, talent and beauty. She is happily married to her husband of 24 years and has 2 wonderful children Coston & Cylee. Her daughter Cylee is involved in pageants and was Princess of America Little Miss 2015 National Title holder.

Angie is very excited about relocating her studio to the Mebane area. She is so excited to share her love of dance with all her dancers.